

Dr. Enrico De Angelis

Managing Director

Professional Background

Enrico is a Managing Director at Quanter Global and has more than 15 years' experience in international transfer pricing and international trade advisory services.

Before joining Quanter Global, Enrico was a partner at a global transfer pricing firm and was previously with one of the Big4 firms.

Enrico is a speaker at various national and international seminars and workshops on transfer pricing and customs valuation issues.

Qualifications

- Ph.D. in Economics – IMT Institute for Advanced Studies (Italy)
- Master in International Law and Economics (MILE) – World Trade Institute (Switzerland)
- Master of Taxation – LUISS University (Italy)

Proven Track Record

- Design and documentation of transfer pricing policies in a variety of industries, including luxury goods, FMCG, medical devices, automotive, media and internet
- Defense and settlement of transfer pricing controversy cases
- Design and implementation of transfer pricing and customs valuation internal control frameworks and risk management tools
- Negotiations of tax and customs rulings
- Management of supply chain restructuring projects
- Assistance during anti-dumping or anti-subsidy investigations and reviews

Capabilities

- Transfer pricing
- Valuation and economic analysis
- Customs valuation and international customs planning
- Interaction among transfer price and customs value/VAT in cross border intra-firm trade
- WTO, market access and International trade regulation
- Trade remedies (anti-dumping, anti-subsidy and safeguards)

