

Olaf Smits
Counsel

Professional Background

Olaf is a Counsel at Quanter Global.

Olaf has an in-house background as a transfer pricing manager with DENSO and Hewlett-Packard. He also has a background in transfer pricing consulting with one of the Big Four. Prior to joining Quanter, Olaf was partner with a Dutch based transfer pricing boutique. At Quanter Global, Olaf heads the Amsterdam office with currently 3 FTE.

Furthermore, Olaf also has a special interest in automating and improving transfer pricing policies and processes.

Olaf serves clients in various industries, but has a focus on pharma companies, (US) technology companies as well as (Dutch) mid-tier companies. Finally, Olaf lectures transfer pricing courses for several organizations and educations.

Qualifications

- Master in Science (MSc) in Fiscal Economics at the University of Amsterdam

Proven Track Record

- Has advised, managed and been involved in transfer pricing projects in a wide variety of industries, from an in-house and consultancy perspective.
- Has practical and theoretical expertise in the design, implementation, documentation and defense of transfer pricing policies in respect of goods, (head office) support services, intellectual property and financial transactions (including treasury centers).
- Has expertise in transfer pricing risk assessment and management and the development of processes and controls for transfer pricing.
- Managed and implemented transfer pricing aspects of global projects in the field of business model restructuring and supply chain integration.

Capabilities

- Full circle of TP, from planning, design, implementation and documentation to defense.
- Understands the in-house perspective for transfer pricing.
- Transfer Pricing Strategy partner/coach.
- Fluent in Dutch, English and a fair knowledge of German language.

