

Stefan Ubachs

Senior Manager

Professional Background

Stefan is a Senior Manager at Quanter Global and has approx. 15 years' experience in international tax in combination with transfer pricing. Prior to joining Quanter Global in 2013, he worked from 2003 for a large legal firm at their Rotterdam, Paris and Eindhoven offices as senior tax advisor. He is currently working on a PhD project on the international tax and transfer pricing treatment of interest within MNEs.

Qualifications

- Master's degree Tax Law - Maastricht University, the Netherlands.
- Master's degree Dutch Law - Maastricht University, the Netherlands.
- Post-master European Fiscal Studies, Direct Taxes - Erasmus University, Rotterdam.

Proven Track Record

- Has been involved in various transfer pricing projects and APA procedures for multinational companies in a wide variety of industries, including oil and gas, chemical industry, financial industry, construction and logistics.
- Has been involved in the structuring of intragroup transactions of multinational enterprises.
- Has advised on many reorganisations and transnational transfers of businesses.
- Has assisted multinational clients with the cross-border relocation of their head offices.
- Was involved in the transfer of intellectual property.

Capabilities

- In-depth knowledge of Dutch and EU tax law.
- Capable of assisting in transfer pricing projects, APA procedures and tax audits involving the Netherlands.
- Languages: Dutch, English, French and German.

